

Camping Kerisole in Scaër (Brittany)

A friendly, quiet campsite with spacious pitches where everyone is welcome. The campsite is located in a large park of 15 ha and on the river l'Isole, where trout and salmon are fished. An ideal place for leisure activities. There are 3 mobile homes for 4 people, 6 mobile homes for 2-4 people, 3 furnished storm-proof tents (ideal for groups who want to participate in sports, painting, fishing, etc.) and a caravan suitable for people with disabilities. Authentic farm house (for max. 10 people) available. Picnic area for 24 people with 2 bbq's, Oklahoma Joe and 2 professional smoking ovens next to a tent with communal kitchen. Party tent with food truck and dining room for 40 people. Games for children, play equipment for the camping. Wifi access point available. The peace and conviviality of Scaër (sports and playful community) and yet within half an hour by the sea, in the forest of Coatloc'h and the Monagnes Noires. In the very vicinity of the campsite: an indoor swimming pool, a football field, basketball court, a sports hall, tennis courts, a covered bouldrome and outlined walking and cycling routes. The voie vert nr 7 (former steam train route of Roscoff to Concarneau) runs next to the campsite and through to the coast. The route is car-free and very suitable as a cycling, walking and jogging route. The campsite, toilets and showers are easily accessible for disabled people. From the campsite, a 5 km long trail (entirely on site) is available for walking, running, mountain biking or pony riding. The managers speak Dutch, German, English and French. Price indication: 2 adults, car, tent or caravan, electricity € 21 per night. You do not have to pay for your dog or cat. Open from 1 April to 31 October and by appointment.
